

NAME:

CLASS:

DATE:

SCORE:

FUTURE MEMORIES

SKETCH PROMPT

An elderly resident remembers watching for cars out her window in the 1920's. This was a big deal because most people at this time traveled by horseback, so cars were quite rare. Today you probably see cars travel down your road but in the future, people may get around another way. Draw a picture of the future transportation you imagine people may use to get from one place to another.

